

HELP WANTED

PRESIDENT – CATHOLIC ACADEMY OF SUSSEX COUNTY, SPARTA

“Our Legacy – Their Future” The CASC has a population of 1,200 students in grades Pre-K through 12th grade in three separate buildings on one beautiful 76-acre campus located in Sparta, New Jersey. Rev. George A. Brown School is home to Pre-K through 4th grade; Pope John XXIII Middle School is home to grades 5 through 7; and Pope John XXIII High School is home to grades 8 through 12. Each school has its own principal and all three work and lead collaboratively to promote one unified Academy under the direction of the President. The CASC also has a deeply committed, seasoned, and enthusiastic faculty who looks to the president for innovative, creative, and motivational leadership.

The successful candidate must be a practicing Catholic and have a proven track record of academic excellence and educational leadership. The candidate must be a motivated leader with a vision for the future, embracing the latest innovation, technology, and educational strategies. The new leader must be a physical presence – visible and available to the students, families, alumni, and community. He/She will set a strategic vision for development and enrollment goals and actively participate in advancement while overseeing public relations and community affairs. The new leader will be actively engaged in building and maintaining relationships with donors and prospective donors participating in direct solicitation and must be eager to engage with the Academy’s many sending parishes and willing to work alongside the CASC Board of Trustees and Endowment.

Interested candidates should apply by February 19, 2025.

Full job description and application material can be found at:

<https://www.applitrack.com/patersondiocese/onlineapp/>